This course will be taught in a classical learning style. Students will learn how to observe the creation in this world and replicate it. They will learn realistic drawing by understanding the basic elements of shape and the use of line and color in different media of expression. This course will aid in developing imagination, problem solving and critical thinking ability.

Course Fee per semester: $170

An additional list of supplies will be provided with confirmation of class

Materials Fee per semester: $20

Min. number of students: 6

Text: none

Instructor: Ms. Kim Hammonds

Ms. Hammonds is a graduate of Biola University and holds a major in Intercultural Studies and a minor in art. She is currently teaching art through the school system, as well as teaching freelance art classes to Christian schools and to home school groups. She has experience working with a graphic design company, but decided that she really enjoyed the interaction with people and especially enjoys teaching. Ms. Hammonds is developing an after school enrichment program called ASE that will begin operation in the fall.

This is a two semester course that will earn 5 units. Grades will be given at the end of the school year.
